PVG's College of Engineering & S.S.Dhamankar Institute of Management, Nashik is one of the important units of the well-known charitable trust - Pune Vidyarthi Griha, which had a standing to work on social responsibilities for more than hundred years. We follow the core values which are aligned with our parent organization.

- 1) We are committed to respond to the changing needs of the student's community by continuously evaluating and improving the academic programs, services, systems and policies.
- 2) We recognize the expertise of all members of the teaching community and treat people with dignity. We promote trust through professional courtesy and fair treatment by including all stakeholders in the decision making process.
- 3) We strive for excellence by exhibiting quality in staffing, facilities, programs and services. We strive to exceed expectations of the stakeholders by encouraging creativity, innovation and continuous improvement.
- 4) We assume and demonstrate accountability for our actions towards students, institute and the society. We take responsibility for their personal and professional growth.
- 5) We believe that our similarities and differences are the opportunities for establishing a common bond and nurturing a working culture wherein fair and equal access is provided to all. We recognize, appreciate and celebrate the strength of diversity and provide educational experiences which promote a greater appreciation for diversity.
